The Grand National Sweepstake kit 2019

HOW TO PLAY

1. Cut out the 40 slips
2. Put them in a hat
3. Without looking take them out (1 per person)
4. Fill out the form below

1 Anibale Fly Classy Irish raider who was third in the Gold Cup	11 Ballyoptic Interesting contender who has finished second in a Scottish National	21 Noble Endeavour Looks an ideal type for this type of race and should put in a good show	31 Valseur Lido Was eighth last year but doesn't look to have stepped up since
2 Valtor Boasts some good form, but failed to finish last time out	12 Dounikos Ran well to win a leading Grand National trial in Ireland	22 Monbeg Notorious Stamina is his forte but he needs to improve a fair bit to win	32 Vintage Clouds A grey who jumps well, stays and ticks a lot of boxes
3 Tiger Roll Last year's winner, and has looked better than ever this season	13 Rathvinden Proven stayer who has won some big races in the past	23 Ramses De Teillee Ran well in the Welsh National and this race has always been the plan	33 General Principle Won last year's Irish National and relishes this type of marathon test
4 Outlander Veteran whose best days look to be behind him	14 One For Arthur Won the National in 2017 but has fallen twice this season	24 Tea For Two Will be looking to give Lizzie Kelly another big-race win	34 Livelovelaugh Low in the weights but hasn't looked like he will stay this distance
5 Don Poli Used to be top class but has struggled this season	15 Rock The Kasbah A good jumper and is ridden by champion jockey Richard Johnson	25 Step Back Ran well at Sandown last season and has attracted a lot of support	35 Walk In The Mill Has won over these fences in the past and could be a strong outsider
6 Go Conquer Consistent sort who is a reliable jumper	16 Warriors Tale The only runner for his top trainer but wouldn't want any rain	26 Ultragold An Aintree specialist who tends to look better over a shorter trip	36 Folsom Blue Guaranteed to stay the trip but might get outpaced early on
7 Mala Beach Reliable plodder who probably needs soft ground	17 Regal Encore Finished eighth two years ago and should have each-way chances	27 Blow By Blow A dour stayer who should still be plugging away in the closing stages	37 Captain Redbeard Scottish raider who unseated at an early stage in last year's race
8 Minella Rocco Former Gold Cup runner-up but has run poorly this season	18 Magic Of Light Mares don't have a good record but she boasts a bit of class	28 Up For Review Ran well at Cheltenham last month but needs to brush up his jumping	38 Bless The Wings Finished third last year but has reached the veteran stage
9 Lake View Lad Has been in great form and ran well at Cheltenham	19 A Toi Phil Needs to prove he has stamina for this marathon trip	29 Singlefarmpayment Tends to run well without winning and might not relish a battle	39 Joe Farrell Last year's Scottish National winner who will stay all day
10 Pleasant Company Last year's runner-up should go well again	20 Jury Duty Won the American Grand National over hurdles, an interesting runner	30 Vieux Lion Rouge Boasts a good record in the race but his best chance of winning might have gone	40 Just A Par Has run well at Aintree before but won't be improving at 12
R1 The Young Master Admirable veteran who has been revitalised this season	R2 Baie Des Iles Mare who disappointed when well backed in last year's race
